Botha's Hill Investors Dream, or a "Fixer Upper"

Statement of modesty, this home is a handy man's dream, looking for TLC - renovate or rebuild, with lots of potential to create character. This property is situated on a corner piece of land size 3374m2, and divided into two mirror image homes, with an interleading door that has been closed off for convenience. Each house has a lounge with the original, antique fireplace, dining room, kitchen, one full bathroom with a guest toilet, including two bedrooms with built in cupboards.

There is a separate outbuilding which has its own driveway and separate entrance, that could be turned into a granny flat, and in the far corner of the property an area could be redesigned into an entertainers dream.
